- Develop anesthesia plans and accurately calculate and document drug dosages.
- Administer anesthetic and supportive medications as directed.
- Place IV and intra-arterial catheters as needed.
- Ensure consent and required documentation are complete and properly maintained.

Anesthesia Monitoring & Management

- Safely and efficiently prepare and run equine anesthesia.
- Monitor and accurately record intra-operative parameters, including direct and indirect blood pressure.
- Maintain a strong working knowledge of anesthetic drugs and their effects.
- Complete anesthesia records thoroughly and ensure appropriate filing and recordkeeping.
- Participate in after-hours and on-call anesthesia coverage as required.

Equipment, Surgery & Patient Recovery

- Maintain anesthesia machines, including successful leak testing before use.
- Clean, organize, and restock anesthesia carts and totes before and after procedures.
- Maintain monitoring equipment and anesthesia supplies in excellent working order.
- Prepare and maintain oxygen tanks and endotracheal tubes.
- Assist with surgical billing and anesthesia charges.
- Assist with equine anesthesia recovery and post-operative patient monitoring.

Teaching & Leadership

- Help train interns, externs, and fellow technicians in anesthesia procedures and protocols.
- Create a positive learning environment through patient, professional, and consistent teaching.

Team-Based Hospital Support

- Help maintain ORs, induction stalls, surgical equipment, instruments, drape packs, and emergency supplies.
- Support a clean, organized, and emergency-ready hospital environment.
- Step in proactively during emergencies and high-workload situations.

The Teammate We’re Looking For

- Professional, respectful, positive, and solution-oriented.
- Communicates clearly with veterinarians, technicians, interns, externs, and clients.
- Takes accountability, welcomes feedback, and actively pursues improvement.
- Arrives prepared, dependable, and ready to contribute.
- Prioritizes patient safety, comfort, calm handling, and attention to detail.
- Supports coworkers and contributes to a culture of collaboration and mutual respect.
- Motivated to continue growing anesthesia knowledge and technical skills.
